

SHOW & TELL

LochLomondQuiltShow

A QUILT SHOW FOR QUILTERS BY QUILTERS

LOCH LOMOND QUILT SHOW 2009

Spring News 2009

Wow – time rushes on and we are very nearly at the 2009 Loch Lomond Quilt Show – we are looking forward to seeing you all there. We have some great treats for you this year. Our usual / unusual mix of exhibitions: Scottish quilters, quilts from France and New Zealand, competitions, individual artists, groups...the list goes on! Large and small, individual and group pieces; it all means that we will be showing the work of over 200 Scottish quilters – so thank you for your talent, enthusiasm and support!

It's the year of HOMECOMING and we're an official Homecoming Event with an exhibition and a book! The exhibition and the book are a celebration of Scotland as seen through the medium of quilts.

We now have year-round classes running at the Studio (see below), Beginners to Baltimore, Design to Themed Days.

Isabel and Ruth are immensely proud of Patricia, who will finish her degree in Sculpture at Glasgow School of Art this May/June. She has handed over co-ordinating the volunteers for the show to Maureen Anderson. Our huge thanks to Maureen. (mdanderson@btinternet.com). Patricia's dissertation is in and she is putting together her degree show, Good luck, Patricia.

RUTH ISABEL PATRICIA
DIRECTORS: LOCH LOMOND QUILT SHOW

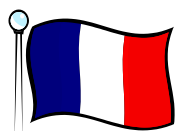

www.thestudiolochlomond.com

The Loch Lomond Quilt Show now has a permanent base: The Studio. The Studio is the office, storage and delivery address for the show. It also has a large, light workshop space with classes running year round. Just off the A82 – do call in if you're passing – check with Ruth 07803 935779 to see if we're in.

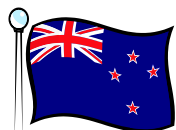

Loch Lomond Quilt Show 2009

Exhibitions include:

France Patchwork, Boutis,
Our official guests from France
so start brushing up your French
Tivaevae Quilt from New Zealand,
Anne Scott collection of Tivaevae
coverlets from the Cook Islands

Gill Turley, Well known for her lovely country quilts
Contemporary Quilt – Thin Blue Line Collection

Homecoming quilts, Freewheeling, Turning Point,
Carol Judge, Rosie Furlong, 30 of the Best,
Q in the Park Gillian Cooper, Filanderers and more....

Competition Quilt Exhibitions:

"Three's a crowd", Auld Alliance and Flying Colours!

Workshops :

Francine Nicolle:

Boutis

Gill Turley:

Exploring Patchwork from the Past – half day

Alternative Quilting Stitches for Country Quilts – half day

Georgina Chapman:

Going round in Circles

Carol Judge:

Japanese Folded Patchwork, Circles to Squares – half day

Japanese Folded Patchwork, Circles to Triangles – Half day

Celia Eddy:

Japanese 16th Century Patchwork Tote Bag

Whole day £35, Half days £20 or book two half days together £35

Contact admin@lochlomondquiltshow.com for availability

Talk:

Celia Eddy "What's in a Name" - The stories behind the names of American quilt patterns.

Friday 5.30 – 6.45 Dumbarton Library Tickets £5 includes a glass of wine/nibbles

Social events:

Restaurant meal – joins us on the bonnie banks for good company and good food.

Cruise Loch Lomond – buffet supper and music as we cruise the Loch.

Ceilidh: Dance the night away with Voice Box + supper + rumour has it that Lionel Quiltie and the Quiltadors may make another appearance!

(As part of their Stitch in Time 2009 World Tour!) See website for details.

20 May 2009 sees the publication of our book!

Homecoming Quilts:

A celebration of Scottish Textiles seen through it quilts and quilt makers.

Pre order from website or buy at the show – only £10 until May 23 2009

www.lochlomondquiltshow.com